

Privacy Policy:

To the point:

We respect the trust put in us by our clients to the same level we respect the Privacy of our Client which means we do not give or share your identity, e-mail or any information on your business with other parties or a third party without your express consent. We will occasionally keep you up-dated and informed you on new partnership we develop or offerings that may be of interest to you.

Finally, we despise spam e-mail and we do not participate in such offending mean of correspondence and contact and we do not like receiving it.

Please feel free to e-mail or call us at (510) 382-9040 with any questions or concerns you might have by using also our web pages - Contact Us - or - Ask an Expert - to submit the related matter or through the use of following e-mail: glocentra@usa.com

Thank you for giving us an opportunity to be of service and for your consideration.